The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's Town of Colerane.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Milan, February 4. N. S. The Difficulties that for ſome time have retarded the March of the Pruſſian Troops, are at length adjuſted, and on the 31ſt paſt, they left their Quarters, in order to return into Germany. They are to be follow'd in a few Days by the Swiſs Regiment of Dieſpach, which could not march at the ſame time with them, for want of Subſiſtance, which would be found with Difficulty on the Roads of Tirol. The Count de Caſtelbarco, Envoy Extraordinary from the late Emperor to the Duke of Savoy, is arrived here in his way to Vienna. He is ſucceeded at the Court of Turin by the Marquis d'Onubria, who hath reſided there for ſome Years, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from Spain. Three Deputies from Naples are come to this Place. They wait for the arrival of a Fourth, in order to purſue their Journey to Vienna, being ſent by the Neapolitans with the Title of Ambaſſadors to his Imperial Majeſty, to deſire a Confirmation of their Priviledges. The Province of Cremona having ſuffer'd very much, as well by the mortality of Cattle as by other preſſures, find themſelves under an incapacity of paying their Taxes in Mony; whereupon the Government hath agreed to take what is due from them in Corn.

Franckfort, Feb. 16. N. S. On the 11th Prince Charles of Nieubourg arrived here, and the next Day he purſu'd his Journy to Inſpruck. The Enemy continues to make great Preparations in Alſatia for an early Campaign. They have already fill'd all their Magazines, and have ſent Orders to their Officers to have their Companies compleat by the 2d of next Month, upon pain of being broke. We have receiv'd advice, that on the 6th Inſtant a Detachment of five hundred French, defeated the Guard at Keyſerſlauteren, a little Town belonging to the Elector Palatin, after which they pillag'd the Place, and then retired.

Berlin, Februaty 18. N. S. The King of Pruſſia hath been very much out of order for ſome time, with an Indiſpoſition in his Stomach. Upon his firſt Illneſs, he ſent for the Prince Royal from Weſterhauſen, where he was gone to enjoy the Divertions of the Country. On the 13th his Majeſty's Diſtemper grew ſo violent, that his Life was deſpair'd of, and he thought himſelf ſo near his End, that he took leave of his Family and Miniſters. The next Day he continu'd very ill, but on the 15th he found himſelf better, and hath been upon the recovery ever ſince, that at preſent he is thought to be quite out of danger. The Queen is ſtill indiſpoſed at Perbenitz, from whence ſhe intends, as ſoon as ſhe is able, to proceed to Grabow, where the Dutcheſs Dowager of Mecklenburg, her Mother, reſides. This Court hath reſolved to disband as many Companies out of each Regiment of Foot as will amount to Five thouſand Men.

Hanover, February 21. N. S. Count Schonborn, the Emperor's Miniſter, arrived here a few Days ago. He hath had an Audience of his Electoral Highneſs, and this Morning he went away, in order to return to Brunſwick. The Biſhop of Spiga, Director of the Catholicks in the Circle of Lower Saxony, who keeps his Reſidence here, is gone to paſs ſome time at Munſter. The Officers of the Elector's Troops have not yet received Mony for raiſing Recruits, and it is ſtill uncertain whether they are to raiſe any. The Reſident of Denmark being ſent for by the King his Maſter, ſet out from hence two Days ago towards Holſtein. Count Vehlen General of the Imperial Troops, who was here for ſome time, is gone back to his Command in the Dioceſs of Hildeſheim. A Gentleman of the King of Sweden's Houſhold, who had been two Years at Bender, paſs'd through this Place Yeſterday in his way to Hamburg, where he is going to confer with Count Welling, and from thence he is to carry ſome Orders from his Majeſty to the Senate at Stockholm. He brings an Account, that when he came away, the King of Sweden was preparing to return through Poland into his own Dominions with a ſufficient Guard, and that the Port had declared War againſt the Czar, without ſhewing any regard to the oppoſition of thoſe who were for preſerving the Peace. The Letters we receiv'd Yeſterday from Holſtein bring advice, that General Steinbock had ſent Four thouſand Men into Tonningen, by Virtue of an Order directed to the Governour, and ſign'd at Stockholm by the Duke of Holſtein Gottorp, who hath been declared of Age, tho' he is not quite thirteen Years Old. Baron Goertz, firſt Miniſter of the Adminiſtrator of that Dutchy, is arrived here from Hamburgh.
